An exciting opportunity has arisen for a Housekeeper at Bury St Edmunds Women's Aid Centre.

Bury St Edmunds Women's Aid Centre is a small, independent charity that for the past 46 years has worked with Survivors and Children who have been affected by Domestic Abuse.

You will work as a member of the team to provide an efficient and effective housekeeping and cleaning service to the Refuge accommodation and Outreach Centre, and ensure that a high standard of health and safety and hygiene are maintained at all locations to the expectations of the organisation.

An enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) certificate will be required for this role.

Bury St Edmunds Women's Aid are committed to quality, equality and diversity and welcomes applications from all sections of the community. This post however is restricted to women due to the nature of the role. The occupational requirement under Schedule 9 (part 1) of the Equality Act 2010 applies.

Previous applicants need not apply.
